

ASAP

ASYLUM
SUPPORT
APPEALS
PROJECT

ASAP gives advice to organisations who are helping asylum seekers with their NASS support issues.

ASAP is unable to offer immigration advice.

ASAP is a charitable organisation independent from NASS, the Home Office and the Asylum Support Adjudicators.

ARE YOU AN ASYLUM SEEKER OR A FAILED ASYLUM SEEKER WHO NEEDS ADVICE ABOUT NASS SUPPORT?

Your local advice agency or refugee community organisation might be able to advise you about NASS support; how to apply for it and how to appeal if it is refused or stopped. Your nearest advisor is at:

ASAP can help your advisor help you. When you go to see them, show them this leaflet so that they can call us. It may also be possible for ASAP to help you with your asylum support appeal (NASS appeal).

ASAP cannot take calls from asylum seekers directly so ask your advisor to call us on our helpline number below.

Helpline for advisors : 020 8684 5972
Email : advice@asaproject.org.uk